

the claims-maker acts on this step alone

Unequal exposure
the campaign addresses
some agents repeatedly and others never

Moral division
the agents it reaches move; the remainder stay where they were

Loss of persuasion
neighbours now beyond
each other's tolerance
stop influencing

Othering
moral disagreement is converted into
perceived threat

Alarm
which then spreads
by contagion between neighbours

once the division exists, the remaining steps proceed with no claims-making at all
